William Byron Rumford (February 2, 1908-1986), father of the Fair Employment and Housing Act (FEHA), was the first African American elected to the Assembly from Northern California. Rumford spearheaded the 1959 Fair Employment Practices Act, which outlawed employment discrimination, and the 1963 Rumford Fair Housing Act, which barred housing discrimination. These two Acts were combined into the FEHA in 1980. Civil rights supporters are invited to collaborate with the DFEH throughout the FEHA's 50th anniversary in 2009. See updated monthly events at www.dfeh.ca.gov.
